FINAL REPORT

Attach a report of educational activities conducted in observance of National Coin Week 1983. Supplement your report with documentation, such as press clippings, letters of acknowledgement, programs, bulletins and photographs. The quality of your presentation and documentation will be considered when reports are chosen for publication in THE NUMISMATIST. Large, elaborate reports are discouraged, but reports in scrapbook form are quite suitable and should be considered.

New ANA members recruited during your National Coin Week campaign should be listed on the reverse of this form.

CERTIFICATES OF PARTICIPATION

Certificates will be provided to clubs and individuals submitting FINAL REPORTS and to the individuals and organizations designated by them. Your report should include a printed or typewritten list of club members, institutions and other individuals whose support contributed significantly to the success of your local National Coin Week campaign. Certificates will be sent to the above address for distribution.

All FINAL REPORTS should be sent First Class Mail, postmarked on or before May 25, 1984, to

A Foundation for Friendship

Coin Week to be celebrated

HEMET — National Coin Week will be observed by the Hemet Numismatists, Sunday through April 21.

The club will have a display at Coast Federal Savings, 40548 East Florida avenue. Exhibited will be a commemorative set of coins for the 1984 Summer Olympics in Los Angeles. The 1983 silver dollar was designed by Elizabeth Jones, chief engraver.

The 1984 silver dollar was designed by Robert

Graham, who was commissioned by the Los Angeles Olympic committee to create a sculpture for the Memorial Coliseum.

Also to be shown will be the 1984 $10 gold piece, the first gold coin to be issued by the United States in 50 years. Designer was James Peed.

Theme for the Coin Week is "Numismatics: A Foundation for Friendship."

Years calmed money supply cent decline in December 1973, the Commerce Department said.

"This confirms the expectation that we have had for some time that the pace of economic growth would moderate significantly," said Ben E. Laden, chief economist for T. Rowe Price Associates Inc., an investment counseling firm. "The financial markets need these kinds of numbers to relieve the gloom that has been building that we were growing too fast, overheating."

In other economic developments Thursday:

—Despite pleas of the developing countries, the International Monetary Fund put off a decision on providing billions in new money to help those nations.

—The million-member United Steelworkers of America union said Lynn R. Williams defeated former

Nancy W. Green:

This form was just handed to me so I have missed the deadline. At the present time I have no way to obtain the ANA number. We had a display for National Coin Week but did not recruit any new members. Our location was not a very good one, few interested people, so we will have a different place next year.

I am enclosing a copy of our newspaper coverage and a list of members who put in time and items and the name of the manager of the bank where the display was.
